baby which was found on the steps of the Pastime Theater some days ago will be given away to the person who the city policemen asked for today of-pictures and two late songs will be the added attractions.

SOLD TOBACCO AT 11 1/2c.

(Mt. Olivet Tribune.)

Grant Dayton, who lives on the farm of Mrs. Rebecca Day, known as the James C. Bigg homestead, on Wolf Run turnpike, sold his 1914 tobacco crop of 6,000 or 7,000 pounds to C. D.
Asbury at 11 1/2c per pound. This is an extra good crop, and Mr. Dayton says it is the largest price per pound he ever received for a crop of tobacco.
He has also sold some corn, and recently engaged his turkey crop at 14c per pound.

FIFTEEN-YEAR LEASE

Given Present Company On the Germantown Fair Grounds—Many Improvements Are to Be Made.

The present company operating the Germantown Fair, "The Union Agricultural Society of Mason and Bracken Counties," have renewed their lease for the period of fifteen years and it is reported that extensive repairs and improvements are to be made to grounds and buildings.

Dr. J. M. Frazer of this city owns the grounds. The great circular, wooden amphitheater is to be repaired and made secure and other work done to make things more attractive.

A new and ornate Floral Hall is to replace the present old shack, and a pleasing feature of next year's fair in the new hall will be Prof. Venie's string orchestra of Maysville, which will delight all with its fine music.

THE OLD RELIABLE'S 61ST YEAR.

(Mt. Olivet Tribune.)

Male growers should not forget that the Germantown Fair of 1915 will offer another premium for the best male colt. Robertson has so far captured two of the premiums offered for best male colts at this fair for the past three years and there is no reason why we should not capture the premium offered in 1915. The "Old Reliable" will hold one of its best fairs next year.

pany of this city, finished up this sea-over the sessions of the Ninth District Educational Association, which closed a most successful convention Saturday.

CHARLEY GATES HOLDING HIS OWN.

Charley Gates, the young man who has caused an awful rumpus, and senseless attacks on Hayswood Hospital and the Chesapeake & Ohio Railway, all because of his own carelessness in hopping a freight train and losing both limbs, is reported resting well at the hospital, where he is having the best of nursing and medical attention, free.

The sympathy of every human being is with this poor, unfortunate youth, whose heredity and environment have led him to probably lose his life. It is said that gangrene has set in and that his amputated limbs may have to again be amputated to save his life.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH SERVICES.

There were four additions to the Christian church yesterday, and the services throughout the day in both Bible school, young peoples' meeting and church were exceptionally well attended. The mens' class reported a total of sixty-one men in the Bible school which was two more than the Carlele class reported at the evening church service. Mrs. H. H. Barkley and Dr.
P. G. Smoot sang very effectively a duet which was the more appropriate because of the evening sermon theme, "Becoming Sons of God." In this discourse, the minister, A. F. Stahl, attempted to prove that though God was the Father of all, yet to enter into the joys of worship, the sinner must conform to the Will of God. He can then claim the spiritual blessings, to which a child of God is heir.

It was announced that there will be special services in this church on both Wednesday and Thursday evenings at 7 o'clock. This church will join in the union Thanksgiving services which will be in the First Presbyterian church.

CHECKS COME BACK NOT PAID.

Several Lexington merchants have been victimized by a smooth stranger representing himself to be the representative of a life insurance company.

He gave the name of A. F. Vickers and D. C. Matthews, and signed checks with these names, in exchange for merchandise purchased at several stores.

The checks were on banks in Lynchburg and Richmond, Va., and have been returned with the notation "No such account." One Lexington business man who accepted a check received a letter from the bank upon which it was drawn saying the check was but one of thirty which had been passed in various parts of Kentucky within the last few weeks.
